EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The meeting begins with Speaker 2 inquiring about Speaker 3's current location (fourth floor) and availability. They discuss when Speaker 3 will be free and make tentative plans for Speaker 2 to call in a short while to finalize meeting arrangements for about half an hour later. The primary topic then shifts to an issue of excess food: Speaker 3 explains that both she and Palak mistakenly brought lunch, resulting in a total of nine rotis and parathas. Speaker 2 expresses concern about the large quantity, stating it would be difficult to consume alone, and ponders the logistics of distributing the food among a limited group, mentioning having 'six options' but needing to select 'only three of them' for consumption.

Follow-up activities were assigned to Speaker 2, with progress to be tracked through the action items below.
